June 14, 1990 - September 17, 2018

Dios busco en su jardin y encontro un lugar vacio. Dios entonces vio abaio a este mundo y vio tu cara cansada. Dios te abrazo y te levanto a descansar. El jardin de dios debe ser muy hermoso, siempre se lleva lo mejor. El sabia que estabas sufriendo, el sabia que estabas en dolor. El sabia que nunca podrias mejorar en este mundo. El vio el camino haciendose mas dificil y las lomas estaban mas dificiles para subir. Dios te cerro tus ojos cansados, y te dijo..."la paz contigo." Nos quebro el corazon perderte, pero no te fuistes solo, una parte de nosotras se fue contigo el dia que Dios te llamo a su casa.

“ In life you were my protector, my therapist, and my dearest friend.
Now my Guardian Angel.
Memories are what remain in the end.
Remembering you with laughter is all I want to do.
Those AM calls before work just to laugh at random stuff is one thing I'll forever miss.
What I'll miss the most is you always telling me, “Güey, why can't you be normal like everyone else.”
(You were less normal than me)
The most INCREDIBLE selfless person I've ever known.
Always the happiest talking about your babies. Your tone of voice would just radiate happiness.
In this life we talked about going fishing and going dancing, we never got the chance. Hopefully when we meet again we both don't lag.
I miss you so much. ❤️
It's not a good bye, it's an until we met again.

Forever in my heart, Robby.

“ Dear Robert,

Thank you. Thank you for being a part of my life. Though your time was cut short I want you to know that you were a part of some of my best memories. You were like a big brother to me, always making sure I didn't do anything stupid, unless you were part of it of course. . So many crazy nights we shared... the drinking, the dancing all of it was so fun with you. I have a ton of memories with you and I am forever grateful as I also met the man who is now my husband through you on your birthday at your house. So crazy! I will always remember you as a happy guy and nothing less. See you in the next life Roberto.
